

October is Rett Syndrome Awareness Month

How You Can Promote Rett Syndrome Awareness

1. Join the “What Would You Give Up?” campaign. Visit www.rett.ca for more information.
2. Encourage family, friends and co-workers to join O.R.S.A.’s Facebook page.
3. Send out an email encouraging family, friends and co-workers to visit O.R.S.A.’s website www.rett.ca.
4. Encourage family, friends and co-workers to join O.R.S.A. Visit www.rett.ca to join on-line or download a membership form.
5. Encourage your child’s school, support agencies and medical professional to view the Silent Angel DVD.
6. Share about the Niagara Falls lite in purple honouring those living with Rett syndrome and O.R.S.A. in the evening of Saturday, October 4th, 2014.
7. Download O.R.S.A.’s Rett syndrome awareness documents and the association’s brochure and share, share, share.
8. Contact your local community paper, television station and/or radio station and ask for a story to be done on your family, Rett syndrome and O.R.S.A.
